Per and Eivor Wikström's foundation

Name	Per and Eivor Wikström's foundation
Purpose	To support scientific teaching, research and studies in economics and law with a particular focus on Swedish integration with French-speaking countries. Should this not be possible, the foundation shall instead support scientific teaching, research and studies in economics and law with a special focus on Swedish integration with Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries. The foundation works for its purpose by partly providing funding for a visiting professorship at the Umeå School of Economics with a special focus of the kind stated above and partly allocating funds for scholarships for individual researchers and students at the Umeå School of Economics. The grants must be distributed in such a way that the foundation remains tax-exempt. If the condition for grant as above no longer exists or the foundation's return cannot be fully used in a useful way for the purpose stated above, grants can instead be given to the scientific teaching conducted at the Stockholm School of Economics, another university, college or scientific institution.

Foundation Torgny Segerstedts Minne

Name	Foundation Torgny Segerstedts Minne
Purpose	The purpose of the foundation is to promote interdisciplinary research in social science, law, economics and journalism, which aims to strengthen fundamental democratic values in the form of freedom of thought, opinion, speech and religion and thereby counteract currents that undermine these democratic values and which are expressed in, among other things, persecution of dissent, acts of violence and racism. The board may also promote the purposes stated above in other ways. An important means of fulfilling the foundation's purpose is to actively work for and in the long term financially contribute to a professorship, with the orientation that constitutes the foundation's purpose, becoming possible to establish at the University of Gothenburg in Torgny Segerstedt's name.

Annika and Gabriel Urwitz Foundation

Name	Annika and Gabriel Urwitz Foundation
------	--------------------------------------

Purpose	The foundation's charitable purposes are primarily to support scientific research and education concerning economics and law, and likewise research and education on Jewish thought, Jewish texts, Jewish law, ethics, religion and culture (Judaism). Other scientific research may also be supported. Culture and cultural activities of a different kind than those listed above may also be supported. A person in financial straits can exceptionally be supported in dire circumstances (social assistance activities). The foundation shall promote its purpose above all by awarding scholarships and issuing other grants and contributions, but may also arrange and/or support seminars and conferences. Grants and contributions may be issued to other foundations and institutions. The board has the right, after completely free choice, to focus on one or two of the foundation's purposes in a certain year or years. The foundation's purpose must be met by primarily claiming the return on the foundation's capital. As a return, not only the customary current such as interest and dividends, but also realized capital gains should be considered. For urgent investments, part of the foundation's capital can also be called upon after the board's previous careful examination, however, the foundation must always permanently have a value of at least SEK 300,000 as tied-up capital.
